Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

Everything is ok with Dustsand , our light in the Netherlands he is doing great, went through some turbulence , in a lot of ways..., hehehe but he is on the right track there for me , bringing him into this wonderful tools of light, is a big plus, makes it all worth it explained him the technique of using intention with the plasterite for protection purposes as we all have to go through those phases if your stuff really pumps you will be harrassed , there is no shortcut to avoid that. you will come under attack, as simple as that.
 from helicopters and who knows what so...use the intention to ask for a protective "shielding" it works I know, not a daily topic but it works well at least it works for Eric and me, that s all I can say.

If your energyfields pump, esp in conjunction with a broadcaster they usually send the dogs on you so ask the selenite to widen the field , no spike, just a wide field and it will do that it will do that sounds too fancy for some , well ok than you stick with the rotorblades if you prefer that it s a choice
I asked also for invisibility it works they cant get to you havent had harrashment ever since and if you think this whole thing, this " tools of light" is just about energy , no it is not it s not just a book, there is a whole library behind it most will never even come close , will never catch on, will not break through but it is all possible and it is not hard but as said before old ways will not open new doors keep that in mind

with selenite you can leave the old brainbox behind it can be done not like a drug or something just a deeper insight , awareness and the journey starts and it is wonderful a massive enhancer for synchronisity does belong more in the healing field, call it what you want, a sjamanic tool, whatever but the individual has to make the choice and the ride so there will just be a few to use it but maybe that s the way it should be most folk will never wake up it is like that , why is that why did we wake up to several levels of awareness funny enough all of the folk, most of them, are healers , really so, some were not so aware of that aspect of themselves at first but now they all are good teachers in a time of massive deception around us like we live in a separate reality but that s one way of looking at it,basically we refuse to be controlled or guided we find our own way through life the hard way lots of ups and downs he is doing great talks also about things like Knocknashee heheeh yes call it what you want energies, fairies, whatever does not matter and most folk will say " yeah right" and than we say.... yeahright

Great strong shape. Love the dolmen photos - you must have noticed the chemtrail in one of them.

Off point, but ties in with your comments - early in the year I wrote to the Civics teachers in all the local Secondary Schools, suggesting that they have a debate in Transition Year about Fluoridation - I suggested it would be relevant with the current situation in Ireland. I didn't even get an acknowledgement from anyone. I guess they have their 'programme' and would hate to deviate from that.

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

It was interesting chatting to people at the Global March against Geo-Engineering on O'Connell Bridge yesterday, some people knew about it and were happy that we are making more people aware. Also good talking to people who knew nothing about it. One youngish American woman took my breath away when she said yes, she knows about chemtrails, that much of it is done by the Military, but it's needed for their defence. She was gone before I'd a chance to tackle her about it.....Lots of pouring done inside this morning because it's lashing rain. And some 'pretties' from a few days ago

wonderful output there

oh ...la la...

you can slice up armies of chemtrails with those babies you forgot to mention you gave away tons of leaflets etc and every single one of them can break the spell of someone one day and it's not just the military, most things coming over here are commercial traffic and they dose the crap out of us too so..

there's a sort of schedule as on some days you get regular, old school, contrails, you know the normal ones from years ago and the next day they all do the chemical again so ... massive deceptions going on for those who can figure it out which is really not that hard once you switch off the TV and leave it off love that phrase, "tackle her about it" and you know what, I see this often, so they let the cat out of the bag in various ways, that's a smart move on their behalf, they are for sure not stupid, very devious, amazingly devious what we are up against here

Heard it so often such excuses, like ah well it's just for the money, the companies that make that crap they put in the atmosphere, or yes it's crap but it's there to protect us, all that shite that's how one diffuses truth give out some facts and twist them and some of those who start to think are immediately pulled back into the mind control, works great for some.

often said most folk, also those who THINK they woke up are like here is the money now gimme the experience

they will never look into it by themselves they just lap up the explanations given and that's the end of it Reminds me of the book I read yesterday, the name of the Rose good book, but most important parts are not shown in the movie with this Sean Connery character it's left out

certain views shall we say on how this world is run, some amazing down to earth statements in the book as first the priesthoods were the control grid later on the money system took over and there was some infighting in the medieval times about that who's to run it

as we know now they ended up in the same bed, the religious system and the money system hand in hand shall we say rubbing each others back in the control grid as simple as that under many disguises, but people are so dumbed down today to go into it and they point fingers at group A or B it's theor it's the ...bla bla it's a club more like gangs, multiple gangs working together yes psychopaths can do that as long as they get a piece of the pie massive deception going on

Gifting

lots of energy action sylphs danced along the way harmony maybe peace talked to some mature British ladies there who visited did not recognise them first but I saw the car had the steering wheel on the " wrong side" so ...there you go

English folk often have these strong accents, hard to make something of it ...but I do manage have to try harder...

just a quick chat

nothing fancy bought some good stuff

again, in the agricultural shop or pet shop , actually it is a mixture of the two seaweed goes for 18 Euro a Kilo top quality seaweed that is bought some spirulina too it s more or less the same belongs to the same family and bought some fossilised seaweed again, more or less the same but easier to handle in orgonite you can grind it up it s like white powder like flour

when grinded up

real seaweed I often use but it reacts so you get crystalgrowth and moulds and the rest of it on your structure

I dont mind

the whole thing is alive anyway so took over more of the northern sector of the Allied line and fought a series of battles of attrition of which the greatest was the First Battle of the Somme in 1916.

After the German offensives of late March to mid-July 1918 had been contained the advance to victory began on 8 August with the Battle of Amiens, continued on a broadening front with the Second Battles of the Somme and of Arras and, in September, extended to the Ypres Salient. The advance swiftly gathered momentum and by the day of the armistice the front line ran fifty miles or more eastward of the starting points.

Nearly 750,000 Commonwealth soldiers, sailors and airmen died on the Western Front - 200,000 in Belgium and over 500,000 in France. They are commemorated upon headstones marking graves in over 1,000 war cemeteries and 2,000 civil cemeteries, or on one of the six memorials in Belgium and twenty in France which carry the names of more than 300,000 who have no known grave.

Beautiful photos. Wow that's close with the helicopter. I don't remember being visited, at least not when I'm around - and I've 3 BSBs running all the time plus plus plus in the garden. Photos to follow of our Dutch colleague Yvonne's fabulous workshop today. Feeling so happy with what they made received something from Yvonne...

Hello everybody, I'm Yvonne from the Netherlands and yesterday was my first experiment with the orgonite from plaster.

Thank you sunflower for your reading

Yes I'm a healer for the big picture: mother earth, the humans, the animals, nature and the crystals, and the Universe.

The intention we put together with 3 friends in the crystals and the water (is the same), was; good health, peace, tranquility, consciousness, safety, growth of the female energy on Earth! And more..... Love and respect... all pure goddesses power...

) I put last night 3 little tools next to my bed but couldn't sleep, too much energy and my heart beats so enthusiastic pffff.

I put 2 tools in other rooms but the whole house was a lighthouse hi hi.

After all I get some sleep.

My friend called me this morning that she slept very quiet and her dogs too!

Her dogs are very afraid of rain and thunder (there was a lot of this last night) and she felt the beautiful energy of the tools.

That's my story for now.

Lots of love and light,

Yvonne

Thank you

Love and Light to you too

It's all appreciated a lot.

Wexford Photos

whaaaaaaaaaaaaa.....I d better not comment on those very cheering bunch there !!!! hehehe reliefs the heart big time a real honor to share it Jenn, we dont see that every day thank you....For sure life force energy there, also nice it can be fun too as that sometimes might leave our minds by all that s going on we must keep balance and you girls do a great deal of balancing there oh boy...

...very nice output, I do think to spot a life pillow on the table too also something we dont see too much of...except for you lot very good vibes in that one....thanks for sharing...actually we are quite a cute bunch it is just one has to know us a littlebit you know...that s all we are for sure not like the atmosphere that hangs around the " other forums" let put it politically correct here....

wink wink (I didnt call names... I didnt call names ..)

connecting awareness and care for a better world and waking good folk up with joy is a good thing as lots of folk who wake up do get depressed and it is nice of you all to show it does not have to be that way to present a lighter angle to the whole energy push we are into witout avoiding the negative, it is just dealing with evil in a way evil can t stand we laugh about evil but we keep our ground they really hate humor, it really takes the piss out of them you see they can t have it that s a fact astonishing presentation a totally new road we have not yet really explored before

Yes Sunflower, we are so lucky with 'The Irish Mob' increasing in awareness and numbers bit by bit, we'll surely be posting some photos of the West's Awake selenite weekend starting tomorrow. Though we will be very serious about what we are doing, we will also have lots of fun.

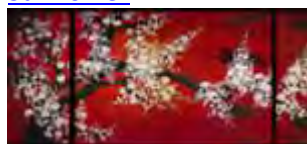

We plan to make HUGE quantities of pretty and workhorse selenite - say 10 x 25 kg bags of plaster? There's a slight chance some bottles of wine will be drunk too, and good food, and 'craic' Although this is a girls only occasion, we do have men interested - our latest and very enthusiastic participant is Fintan McD who will be teaming up with Lady Juliet to go gifting in Wexford Town. His recent cone creation (now rapidly becoming a BSB) tested with a very high Bovis reading. He wrapped all his cables around the cone and noticed that his broadband seems to be going faster. He intends getting a longer cable soon.

]that s true, last couple of weeks I ve seen new happenings for those who pay attention it is obvious there is something going on Personally I think it has to do with bringing in the carbon tax and the rest of the scams so everybody thinks the climate is going boinkers so they happily accept the new flogging by our owners begging for more the green marxist agenda it s all very simple once you look behind the curtain and see what s really going on, not a happy view but at least an honest one wishing you all the best

Yep ...yep...yep...lady J hit it again could almost call here the " Irish Wonderweapon" more impact than a bomb for sure

Much longer lasting too as the energy and work she rolls out is here to stay and go into the future step by step the little pebble that just has to become the avalanche and rightfully so will continue soon

...

well it is too complicated and personal I see , but to put it simply a massive plasterite workshop with a lot of girls, and some other aware folk too, also some youngsters who can be ridiculously aware strange kids nowadays 12 years old saying oh yeah those are chemtrails like it s the most obvious thing in the world well, yeah they are for those who are aware but most folk are not lots and lots of good energy there, lots of plaster orgonite, lots of fun and a lot of other things too lots of miles also, lots of sylphs, lots of all things for two days the party went on and a lot of work has been accomplished tons of gifting, mainly the new " drive by gifting " during trips of 400 km / 200 miles these crates of orgonite just zoom by eh J Brid, Antjie , Suzanne, Debbie, Glengarriff, West Cork ?? surely sounds Irish enough to me anyway, taks completed marvelously Juliet coaching some newcomers too,like Patricia etc, so yes Ireland looks special to me and feels better even since... good examples something to look up to , top work Jenn, outstanding

Lady J did another gig today, the good work, almost extinct so it seems nowadays

Keep the vibes going Jenn, keep the vibes going, it s really simple if we dont do it nobody is going to do it , it is very simple no black magic , no abracadabra...

Just hard work that s all that counts good work Jenn, it does matter absolutely astonishing you cant turn out thousand hearts every weekend dear Jenny hehehe just once in a while

one can only do good work and healing , sky restoration, etc , balancing it all again and there is no money in it so only real people use it

I know you do so much good work helping others

teaching others

waking them up, properly, no agenda, no spiel attached it is amazing to realise how few real people there are left who dont fall for some agenda most out there just parrot the new age agenda or create infighting out of fake arguments all that stuff

no cooperation there well anyway, we support the real folk ps that big cone really sings big time nice energy blaster hope you catch some sleep this weekend LOL better not do a Bovis reading on that one it is very strong

it just is cannot compare it to your first big cones thanks for caring and sharing hehehe

sorry feeling good here does not happen every day you know but we see there is a lighter side to this too I mean we should not be crushed by fear and depressions as that s not gonna get us out of this nice smile Jenn

I see some Amethyst on that one I like amethyst too dont know why it attracts me , just like cat s eye stone have to look up its properties

Introduction to the Meaning and Uses of Amethyst

Amethyst-Healing-Properties-image.jpg (15.38 KiB) Viewed 191 times amethyst-crystals-for-sale.jpg (22.5 KiB) Viewed 191 times

Purple Amethyst has been highly esteemed throughout the ages for its stunning beauty and legendary powers to stimulate, and soothe, the mind and emotions. It is a semi-precious stone in today's classifications, but to the ancients it was a "Gem of Fire," a Precious Stone worth, at times in history, as much as a Diamond. It has always been associated with February, the month the Romans dedicated to Neptune, their water-god, and is the traditional birthstone of that month. It is the stone of St. Valentine and faithful love, and signifies ecclesiastical dignity as the Bishop's Stone. It carries the energy of fire and passion, creativity and spirituality, yet bears the logic of temperance and sobriety. [Ferne, 170-171][Mella, 73][Eason, 212]

Whether its crystals are left natural, polished as tumblestones, or faceted into magnificent jewels, Amethyst is a gem whose beauty transcends its commonality. It is a variety of Quartz found in many locations around the world, and forms as transparent, terminated crystals of all sizes in geodes, clusters and as long single terminations. It is also found in vitreous masses and polished into wonderful specimens and personal talismans. The presence of manganese in clear Quartz produces Amethyst, while additional amounts of iron vary the purple coloration. Amethyst ranges in hue from pale red-violet to deep violet, and may be transparent or opaque. It is sometimes layered with white Quartz as Chevron Amethyst, found in combination with Cacoxenite, mixed with Citrine as Ametrine, or in rare cases, "rutilated" with Goethite. (See paragraphs below.) [Melody, 109][Hall, 53]

The name Amethyst derives from the Greek word ametustos, meaning "not intoxicated," and comes from an ancient legend. The wine god Bacchus, angry over an insult and determined to avenge himself decreed the first person he should meet would be devoured by his tigers. The unfortunate mortal happened to be a beautiful maiden named Amethyst on her way to worship at the shrine of Diana. As the ferocious beasts sprang, she sought the protection of the goddess and was saved by being turned into a clear, white crystal. Bacchus, regretting his cruelty, poured the juice of his grapes over the stone as an offering, giving the gem its lovely purple hue. [Megemont, 24][Kunz, 58-59][Simmons, 28] (See the Legends and Lore section for an alternate version.)

Throughout history the special virtue of Amethyst has been that of preventing drunkenness and overindulgence. Ancient Greeks and Romans routinely studded their goblets with Amethyst believing wine drunk from an Amethyst cup was powerless to intoxicate, and a stone worn on the body, especially at the navel, had a sobering effect, not only for inebriation but in over-zealousness in passion. Catholic bishops also wore Amethyst in a ring to protect from mystical intoxication. Kissing the ring kept others from similar mystical intoxication and kept them grounded in spiritual thought. [Fernie, 169-170][Kunz, 58][Mella, 73][Megemont, 24-25]

Amethyst was also reputed to control evil thoughts, increase intelligence and render men shrewd in business matters. For travelers it was worn as a protection from treachery and surprise attacks, kept soldiers from harm and gave them victory over their enemies. It lent assistance to hunters in the capture of wild beasts and fowl, and was considered to be a powerful psychic stone of protection against witchcraft and black magic. Like other royal stones it protected its wearer from disease and contagion. [Kunz, 58][Fernie, 170][Mella, 72-73]

In the spiritual world, Amethyst provided a connection to the Divine. To the Hebrews, it was Ahlamah, the ninth stone in the breastplate of the High Priest, engraved with the tribe of Dan, as well as the twelfth foundation stone for the New Jerusalem. To the Egyptians, it was Hemag, listed in the Book of the Dead to be carved into heart-shaped amulets for burial. In Eastern cultures, it was listed in descriptions of sacred "gem-cities," "trees of life," and used in temple offerings for worship, and to align planetary and astrological influences. It was popular in rosaries and prayer beads, credited with creating an atmosphere of pious calm, imbuing a sense of mental peace and quietude. [Kunz, 236-243, 297, 302-202][Fernie, 169]

In today's world, Amethyst is still a remarkable stone of spirituality and contentment, known for its metaphysical abilities to still the mind and inspire an enhanced meditative state. Its inherent high frequency purifies the aura of any negative energy or attachments, and creates a protective shield of Light around the body, allowing one to remain clear and centered while opening to spiritual direction. Amethyst stimulates the Third Eye, Crown and Etheric Chakras enhancing cognitive perception as well as accelerating the development of intuitive and psychic ability. It initiates wisdom and greater understanding, and is a stone of comfort for those grieving the loss of a loved one. [Melody, 109][Simmons, 28][Ahsian, 29][Raphaell, 80]

Amethyst's ability to expand the higher mind also enhances one's creativity and passion. It strengthens the imagination and intuition, and refines the thinking processes. It helps in the assimilation of new ideas, putting thought into action, and brings projects to fruition. It is a talisman of focus and success. [Megemont, 25]

In nature, Amethyst at times forms in combination with other minerals. In addition to the properties of Amethyst outlined in this article, the following varieties possess additional qualities

Some great posts thanks Sunflower, love the chemtrail song, so black and funny - will have to get the link and 'Share' it. Your skies fare much better than ours here, it's getting very hard to break through the crud, and even then we see spraying going on, non stop.

Thanks for your nice words, and interesting information about amethyst, didn't know all that.

Just got a message from our new gifted/pourer in Wexford - Fintan, he says : 'onslaught this morning in Wexford (check Chris Wakefield's post on anti-geo) ... but skies cleared up real nice with fluffy clouds so I did a little more gifting Enniscorthy while I was up there.' It's great that he's noticing good results, feeling happy.

hold your breath Jenn

it s not that there aint nonsense going on here, they give it to me pretty bad, almost continious spraying for some hourse now but keep blue , well you see, they are not really going mild on me today they really throw it out by the bucket but gets cleaned rapidly but they keep doing it , that s how it is it s a must be they say all for the " greater good" their good not ours

as the site "Curezone" has millions of visitors, ten thousands daily, and that's the place where some of the old crew used to hang out once in a while like Steve, so I thought, well why not as there, still is, hardly any information to be found on topics like plasterite, life pillows, broadcasters etc to post some there and so I did.

and lo and behold, five minutes later Google has already indexed it ?? wow that's fast

anyway, the point is to give people the other side of the coin as they only are allowed to see the ridicule so most info is on curezone now too hopefully some will stumble upon it more easily as I suspect they never really look to much outside the box also curezone is a massive site, so you can find most things there, but not all things so I fel the urge to straighten that out because is you use a search engine or something it is still hard to find true information

I see more and more of these NWO disclaimers everywhere just the first step before they lock it all down I guess tick tack toe policy little bit at a time

Note FDA means Federal Deception Agency

some background on the selenite

<http://www.crystallinephoenix.com/>

Facts About Selenite Crystal

Tests in a sophisticated lab at a major university have shown that when liquids, in glass containers, are placed on our selenite crystal, the chemical composition of the liquid (wine, beer, and coffee tested so far) is changed. Think about it... selenite crystal changes the chemical composition of liquids. And how many forms or types of liquids, or things containing liquids? After all, humans are 70% liquid! In more recent laboratory tests, we have confirmed that selenite will change a persons blood chemistry, for the better. More to come on this later.

Tests in Korea have shown that our selenite crystal produces 800-1000 negative ions per cubic centimeter of surrounding air. A pristine forest produces about 400 negative ions per cubic centimeter. WebMD says:

"Negative ions are odorless, tasteless, and invisible molecules that we inhale in abundance in certain environments. Think mountains, waterfalls, and beaches. Once they reach our bloodstream, negative ions are believed to produce biochemical reactions that increase levels of the mood chemical serotonin, helping to alleviate depression, relieve stress, and boost our daytime energy." <http://www.webmd.com/balance/features/negative-ions-create-positive-vibes>

Most recently, tests have shown our selenite crystal to have a frequency of 244.5 MHZ, whereas, our selenite powder is at 233 MHZ.

"A healthy body frequency is 62-72 MHZ . When the frequency drops, the immune system is compromised. Essential oils start at 52 MHZ and go as high as 320 MHZ, the frequency of rose oil." The only essential oil with a higher frequency than selenite, is rose oil.

Tests have shown that Selenite should never be stored or placed on concrete or cement floors or foundations. This includes thin tiles or carpet or linoleum on top of such foundations. This will drain the selenite! Place at least one inch of wood or natural stone between the selenite and such surfaces. Email us if your selenite has been drained by storage on cement or concrete.

The word "selenite" comes from the Greek "selenites," meaning "moon stone" or "moon rock," with the root word "selene" meaning "moon," and for good reason - the mineral selenite is the near transparent and colorless crystal form of gypsum that exudes a pearly luster which glows and can very much resemble the moon. Selene is also the name of the Greek Goddess of the Moon (a.k.a. Artemis or Diana).

<http://www.controversial.com/Selenite.htm>

Selenite is a form of gypsum, $\text{CaSO}_4 \cdot 2(\text{H}_2\text{O})$, hydrated calcium sulfate. Gypsum is one of the more common minerals in sedimentary environments. It is a major rock forming mineral that produces massive beds, usually from precipitation out of highly saline waters.

<http://www.galleries.com/Minerals/Sulfa ... gypsum.htm>

Gypsum is found as both massive material, including the alabaster variety; and clear crystals, the selenite variety; and parallel fibrous, the satin spar variety.

<http://www.mindat.org/min-1784.html>

The largest visible deposit of selenite is in the form of sand crystals at White Sands National Monument in New Mexico, where the selenite sand covers an area of 275 square miles.

<http://www.nps.gov/whsa/index.html>

Santa Sabina is the oldest extant Roman basilica in Rome. Santa Sabina was built by Peter of Illyria, a Dalmatian priest, between 422 and 432. The exterior of the church, with its large windows made of selenite, not glass, looks much as it did when it was built in the 5th century.

The largest individual selenite crystals have been found in Mexico's Cueva de los Cristales, also known as the Cave of the Crystal Giants, deep under the Naica Mountain in the Chihuahuan Desert. The largest single crystal is 4 feet in diameter, 50 feet long, and weighs over 55 tons.

<http://www.crystalinks.com/mexicocrystals.html>

These photos were taken in the Cave of the Crystal Giants in Mexico (<http://www.thecrystalgiants.com/>), and show one of the earliest explorers, Leela Hutchison, who is a great admirer of Crystalline Phoenix[®] selenite and is helping expand our markets.

Metaphysical Properties

The Crystalline Phoenix[®] is very unique in that we find a coral-like growth in cavities in the selenite crystal deposit. Trudy Ann Baker has tuned into the combination of the translucent selenite crystal and this beautiful "Selenite Coral ©" growth and found that, "the selenite crystal unweaves the mis-creations of humanity and the laggards (on the level of the elements at particle level); the cream or white coral gypsum (no energy once brown) surrounds each particle of the elements in an envelope of love with the signature of that particles original divine spark or essence, stepped down in frequency so that the intelligence of the forms (humans) can begin or continue to remember who they are, even if unconsciously (Again on the level of the elements - Ether, air, fire, water, earth). In order to feel this I must say into myself: I call on the part of me that is "Selenite Coral ©" to embody me."

In Edgar Cayce Guide To Gemstones, Minerals, Metals, and More by Shelly Kaehr, PH.D, it states, "Selenite, as I like to call it, is one of the most powerful stones of the New Age. It brings light into the energetic bodies and instantly clears all chakras. It is one of the few stones that does not ever need to be cleansed. It can be used to cleanse other stones as well."

According to Melody in Love is in the Earth, the reference book on metaphysical properties of the mineral kingdom, the metaphysical properties of gypsum also apply to selenite. She goes on to say that gypsum "is a lovely stone to place in the middle of the medicine wheel; it can bring together the four directions of the medicine wheel and can induce the synthesis of these directions with Mother Earth and Father Sky. This mineral is considered the lucky stone. It provides a strong influence for bringing Good Fortune. It has been used in ceremonies of rain-making by aboriginal tribes...." Melody lists numerous health benefits of working and living with selenite, including "to extend ones life span."

Katrina Raphaell, in her "Crystal Trilogy" writes extensively about the benefits of using selenite in crystal healing, and in The Crystalline Transmission states "that this crystal is endowed with a special ability to alter the very nature of physical matter."

Judy Hall, in her latest book, 101 Power Crystals, The Ultimate Guide to Magical Crystals, Gems, and Stones for Healing and Transformation, states "Selenite stands at the threshold between spirit and matter. A Kabbalistic creation myth tells us that before the universe existed, God was everywhere, but he had to inhale to create space for our world. Realizing he was not present in creation, he fashioned vessels of divine light to populate the universe, but they shattered. Carrying that light, Selenite's task is to reunite the shards of the divine with their source." Relative to Transformational Power, she states that "Selenite accesses angelic consciousness and brings divine light into everything it touches." and "It also facilitates female rites of passage, such as puberty and menopause, encouraging reconnection to the wise feminine divine power." She recommends to "re-empower [selenite] in moonlight." We recommend recharging it in sunlight periodically for short periods.

And according to Simmons and Ashian in The Book of Stones, "selenite clears or bridges blockages and densities in the energy field." (<http://heavenandearthjewelry.com>) Simmons goes on to say in his new book Stones of the New Consciousness, "Selenite quickly opens and activates the third eye, crown chakra, and the Soul Star chakra above the head. Selenite combines synergistically with almost any stone or combination of stones. It is an excellent stone for building energy grids in the home or outdoors. In meditation, selenite stimulates the flow of spiritual energies throughout one's Liquid Crystal Body Matrix, as well as the astral and etheric bodies. Selenite links easily with the Soul Star chakra above the Crown, drawing one's Higher Self or higher awareness into the consciousness of the everyday self that is almost effortless. In fact, selenite can readily facilitate the full opening of the crown chakra, known in the Hindu tradition as the Thousand-Petaled Lotus. Selenite, when used in meditation, can assist in facilitating the integration of the left and right sides of the brain. Selenite's role in human evolution includes the stimulation and strengthening of the neurological structures connecting the heart and the brain, as well as the spiritual conduits of energy flowing between them."

In The Crystal Textbook by Roger Joyeux, <http://www.thecrystaltextbook.com>, he states "Selenite is among the most precious of all crystalline formations, and indeed offers great joy through the refined and delicate frequencies it brings. Selenite is a bridging stone between the most distant planes of the beyond-the-beyond and the third dimension. It holds third dimensional vibration within its essence, and at the same time, offers access to the light of the soul and the universe to any person with whom it resonates. The light frequencies of the person using Selenite and her soul merge within Selenite's Oneness. Although a similar connection is possible within many other stones, Selenite works with the Oneness of the soul in the way that the master calls the servant. The master on Earth, who is at One with Selenite, has at her disposal a clear channel to the soul and to the highest levels of self. Selenite draws Oneness together. The Oneness of the All of the beyond, the Oneness from the soul, and the Oneness from the person using it on the third dimension, merge together within Selenite. All of the universe can have a home within its essence." The entire write-up on selenite is well worth reading...very powerful!

In The Complete Crystal Handbook by Cassandra Eason, she states "Thought to be useful for.. attention deficit disorder/hyperactivity...."

And in Crystal Therapy, How to Heal and Empower Your Life with Crystal Energy by Doreen Virtue and Judith Lukomski, "Selenite enables access to information from the Plaides. It also helps heal negativity and fears, and provides alignment and cleansing abilities."

Because selenite crystal "quickly opens and activates the third eye, crown chakra, and the Soul Star chakra above the head", Katrina Raphaell strongly recommends in The Crystalline Transmission Vol. 3, that "Selenite can be used in crystal healings if you use accompanying grounding stones." We recommend the use of grounding stones anytime someone is connecting with selenite in clearing, meditation, or aura work; as well as when physically in the presence of selenite (in a room gridded with selenite or sleeping with selenite under the bed or pillow); or when sculpting, polishing, or handling selenite for any length of time (our suggestions for grounding stones: hematite, black tourmaline, smokey quartz, obsidian, nuumite). These may be held in the hand, placed near the feet, worn as bracelets, carried in pockets, worn as necklaces, and/or integrated with the selenite crystal

Feeling very happy to post a photo of the first pour of Patricia, who is powering up her selenite with Reiki and crystals.

The great thing too is that she is operating in an area where there is no-one else doing it (Monaghan).

She got great tuition from Lady Juliet.

Patricia's comment: Feeling so happy to be part of this amazing power

And even after it came back, they were so slow it was not workable anyhow that was a little wake up moment for me so I brushed up the forum , well...removed tons of eh redundant posts on my part putting some posts, articles in their right place tidying things uptons of rants there LOL...wow maybe too much of a good thing...as they say..?

Dont know, could be couldnt be maybe it s needed to show us the state we are in so we dont get too laid back about things even though they have been dealt with before the program is still running a lot of programs are running right now the message is clear enough anyway right ?
So...Also a good moment to reflect on things and a good moment to make a online backup at the internet archive it is troublesome work as pages can only be indexed one at a time, yeah...lots of pages here I know but that s how we could retrieve at least some of the information of the previous forum So it s worth the effort I d say It was a good year, maybe the best ever yeah sure the best ever

Also, as said before, we are slowing down on things enough has been said for folk to hold on to and to bring into existence that s what this is all about in the end learning the ropes the work itself you have to do yourself you cant " copy paste" that Anyway we are not doing too bad you know been online for just six months or so it at all maybe shorter and already having lots of visitors just in that short timeframe that s not too bad considering there is not too much hoopla about this material these topics we hardly hear anything about

As we are forced to live in this what I often call zombieworld among those who are still living under the spell it is not always easy to hang on , to keep going there is often a moment you think what is it all good for why are not more folk making a stand etc , that sort of thing you know it is emotionally challenging at times and I m not just talking about the helicopters, the chemdumps and all the rest of it it s the big picture than can get overwhelming at times to grasp all that s going on We might post a few things but please do not count on it this is not an entertainment business It has also been a moment of looking back at things Came across the Carnicom institute and noticed a lot of good folk have left this world

<http://carnicominstitute.org/wp/in-memorial/> These and some others were among the first to point out what s really going on sticking their heads out

In Memoriam

by Clifford E Carnicom

August 12, 2015

There are many that serve to champion human rights with no return of fame and glory; they do so passionately and unselfishly to make this world a better place for us all. In many cases, we never even know who they are as the winds of public knowledge and awareness are often transient, and they soon pass us by. This page calls attention to only a few of such individuals that I have come to know over the years; those that follow below are entitled to honor and appreciation from each of us. There are others that we do not know of, and there will be others in our future. Let us not forget or forsake the sacrifices that each of these people have made on our behalf. They are all heroes of our time.

Also , it may be an opportunity to state we are not against any solution when it comes to orgonite, that strange word life force energy I prefer

I did remove some rants about " resin" because I think a point has been made between natural and artificial methods funny enough it is easier to get folks attention if you use resin and make nice products with it a bit odd maybe, but that s just the way things are so, that s good too but I personally prefer the natural solution on the other hand I dont want to give the impression I m on a sort of crusade against resin

I am not just speaking out an opinion that s all one has to be able to read between the lines a lot and I ve noticed a lot of people cannot do that that s another long story so I leave that where it is

Can only say if you really want the full truth about anything you have to find it yourself and that s hard tedious work most folk wont go there so be it

In an age of total information warfare imagesIQ5KHV6Q.jpg (10.99 KiB) Viewed 313 times

Also, something else, if you wake up to all these things try to keep it to yourself or only deal with folk who can handle it please do yourself a favor dont start evangelizing your neighborhood, family, etc etc wont work...trust me...most folk chose not to know and most could not understand anyway anymore it s all drummed out of them you only create havoc for them and for yourself we all been there , havent we so dont do that can write whole books about just that topic " waking up" but wont do that either well we will see for the time being we take it easy on the forum done a lot of gifting this year

A lot of places where I go now the sylphs play a lot of blue sky

as the famous " energiekegel" or energy cone is no longer for sale.

So you have to make it yourself

Well it s easy , Stephen had whole classes make it at school so, if they can do it , you can do it for sure or even bigger, stronger and better

Gemstones are mentioned , you can use them, but it s all not mandatory you can if you wish if you feel that s the way to go it s like cooking there are more ways to create something so just water, plaster of Paris (selenite) , Natural Salt, and Beach Sand will do that s more than enough sure you can go further than that but real crystals are not needed inside the object as you should know by now just use the water you soaked the crystals in , that will do just fine and if you havent go that dont let that hold you back regular clean water works of course too just make sure you use natural salt, stay away from anything processed it does not have to be himalaya salt, could be anything natural but himalaya salt is the best salt available as it contains most minerals it is the most beneficial salt Dont use any metal in your plasterite.

Keep it simple , keep it as natural as possible bring your intention in it, " connect" to it and you ll do just fine you will see results

Oh...some pictures from Australia have reached me and that s a good reason to post something we dont see everyday heheheh

'So long as he leaves his forum up ... as a reference , research site .. will work out ... always a great place to send folks ...appears a lot more folk making plasterite these days because of FB groups showing how easy it is'.

The ideal shells for both plasterite and orgonite are hollow ones , containing that fibonacci spiral ... an internal air space that resonates through the whole piece... bi-valve type, like scallops, pippies and oysters (as examples) not much benefit

Juliet "I believe one of the best intentions is " To join Worldwide with all orgonite to become one true strong power " To repel negative energies and frequencies is another jajajaja...ah yee.....teasers

But it s true

More folk are getting into , as believe it or not, I managed to get onto facebook, no not mine, I dont have one, thank God I dont have one, an account there.

But someone else s so...did a little peek , yes seems that way, still I am glad I am no longer part of that as strange as that may sound.

Some will understand it, most won't.

That's for other people, that's not for me, other folk do a much better job dealing with the public.

Agreed it is nice to see progress, maybe not my type of progress but it is progress nevertheless admitted, well....I won't go too deep into all those happenings.....

As strange as it may sound to some, some folk don't want to be there on Facebook

Hold your breath...

I'll spare you a deeper analysis on that topic

As most folk do not understand deeper things nowadays, that's the way it is.

That's also a reason why I removed a lot of stuff here, my talks mainly, because if you truly speak out you will get the beating always sheeple 2.0 can't handle facts they think they are awake but they are not and when you address such topics boy they take you down asap in all sorts of ways

that's real life folks

All I see around me is political correctness, everybody is so indulged in it everybody goes along don't rock the boat mate don't rock the boat

But I can't because a forum or those things are one of the few places left to express opinions about things that matter real opinions

not political correctness not going along at least we are not here to make a business out of it at least we don't sell you crap which is very popular to go along with beating on the allowed drum

I am not really good at sucking up as you may have noticed it's an allergic response I get when I even come close to that I have a really bad attitude when it comes to bullshit

I just can't handle that appropriately, it just won't take

Without bragging about it, I started the first natural energy, plasterite, groups on FB that's how it is

call a dog a dog will ya call it a dog

but I am glad others took it over and it is great to see some might get something out of it must say it's still mainly a female thing this method

dont know why as in the start it were mostly males well you dont hear me complain about that I must say

No I , we, are not against anything in any way so my rants dealing with control grids , the push of a certain artificial method, jadija it s not that I believe in free speech that means all topics must be free to discuss openly without agendas and the rest of it You wont get too many facebook likes when you go down that path believe you me but you speak truth and some folk need that, not too many though but some do and for those this is all aimed at for those oddballs like me who like to do their homework properly and get somewhere make things work Very few folk really catch on to the big agendas very very few cut through all the crap not just part of the crap all the crap it is very hard to find any solid real truthful information in this day and age it is really not easy most things are in a way tainted there is a smell to it , a twist, a spin there is usually something to it that is not right you never get straight facts on anything nowadays It is actually not really possible , feasible, to keep life force energy separated from the big agendas as they are the reason most folk get into this in the first place so just discussing the energy itself is only part of a much bigger story Soon the globallist will have another big meeting to sign those new legislations to really start flogging us like never before you will see Carbon taxes , austerity, communalism, all that shite and the rest of it it s never them you see, it s always you you have to go, not them it s always us, we are supposedly the cancer of this planet it s a religion to them you see nothing to do with logic the new soviet is building up rapidly now all for the greater good.... sure isnt it always dont all wars start with a lie a big lie are we not living in a big lie we sure do humongous

Whoopsy just hope I am not being too "negative " here or in "dualistic" jeopardy and all that new agy hoopla Just talking about it , the agendas, makes folk shy away in a trained pavlovian style all trained since childhood onwards oh ..you re one of those hmmm " conspiracy types" arent you ? and before you know it they toss you in the same bed as the reptile man and cia Jones and all those other allowed jokers they are allowed you see should ring a bell maybe, dont know, maybe it should well enough talk anyway, I appreciate what s going on on facebook

Still to me FB is a control grid , period. so they know your " beef" do their profiling so they know who s who but most folk dont give a damn about privacy anyway so who cares right well I do , the oddball picture time

yes all from the public realm on FB

I made this on Sunday and have turned it into a BSB (Blue Sky Broadcaster). For us Irish newbies it has a long electric flex/cable wrapped around it as many times as possible, plugged into a socket with some sort of light on the other end, in this case a salt lamp. I'm told it's reading 80 million on the Bovis scale which I believe is quite high. Not only does it do everything it should do but also sends positive energy back into the electricity grid, thereby harmonising a whole neighbourhood. I wonder will the 2 neighbours who are blanking me because of my Water Charge protests start smiling at me again ?

Of note here , although organite towerbusters are being made , the interesting stuff is under the table... Most obvious, the large plasterite Bernoulli Ring , along with 3 powered organites.....the orgone field is massive which comes through in the pieces being made and cured.....about 900K Bovis ... awesome for gifting Tb's not a bad workplace atmosphere either

j

will usually add more plaster as stirring. The water has 1 or 2 cups of crystal water,.the rest usually tap water*

Plaster Radionics Trial

G'day , thought I'd share this old photobucket essay on building large plasterite plates to stack making a radionics tower.....they were built in large drainage trays for pot plants ...several configurations were trialed ...one lot of plates had a heap of highly paramagnetic chips (a form of granite) mixed through...(see the broken plate in the photos) the idea was , like the pyramids and other ancient sites , to use paramagnetic and diamagnetic materials in layers..

Anyway , was an interesting build and ended up being left on a bush block in rural Darwin the whole thing was painted, as is, in a couple of layers of resin to make water proofhere's my photobucket records..enjoy

Well I think all information is in place now.

So there will not be many more postings.

From now on those who care should be on their own feet moving forward.

I am not intending to do more posts.

Maybe a few Irish gigs but nothing more cheers

enjoy

Good news from Ireland, again

yes

no the party aint over before the fat lady...etc this time from the North

All the way north the north of Northern Ireland for those who know the agendas you should know this whole norther Ireland thing was a big setup just an agenda to keep us all bashing each others heads in they always do that , divide and conquer as it works so well every time unless we grow up a bit the big IRA guy, this guy with his beard, Kelly something, he spoke on the CFR , than you surely know you have been screwed, all on board folks, just using us , not all of us but most of us as usefull idiots all the time

staged bombings and the rest of it to get it going in the North old agendas you have been suckered again just like with stooges like Ron Paul flashing his masonic handsigns to show who he really serves like all those pied pipers doing you in Russel Brand, Icke, all of them all there to fool you and they do an amazing job most of you fall for that crap Cooper warned you for those clowns but... people just dont grow up so...you have been suckered again sheeple never learn, just keep voting, unbelievable you cant help that folk

But I wont bore you with that crap because if you are still on that "level" of awakening than good luck to you

The female in question is someone who does write poems she even gave me some of them , an ebook very good stuff rather amazing but I wont mention names or should I is that political correct or maybe we should as it is good poetry and I love to support grassroots in any way shape or form and yes she touches the selenite too she is doing it all

Anyway,I think they are great poems, really do and as our cultures go out the window , fast now, it s not a bad idea to support it before it s all gone as we are all pushed into globalism now, mushy cultures, etc etc all by design so nobody stands up for anyone that s the whole purpose of it in other words nobody had anything in common with anyone else, no culture, roots, etc we see the effects all around us

I see you can buy the books for a small price on Amazon too Ebook or Hardcover,

<http://www.amazon.co.uk/-/e/B003MGH3M2>

I think you should no we dont have the big NGO s behind us as we know those who dictate to governments that s one of the few advantages of having your own forum you can at least speak some truth well at least I prefer that more truth means lower ratings LOL but I dont care and although it s typical Irish poetry it is in a way universal too to some extent no , it is for sure not political correct to talk about the famine it is for sure not why it happened another agenda by the etestablishment to push out the Irish to Amerika and Australia, etc etc and more than that

she used to buy old school orgonite and I am convinced she wont need to do that anymore using an expensive, not so strong artificial method to bring good energy about

just use the " dorky stuff" darling and you ll do fine we all do

I Must say after three years or so most folk who prefer the Plasterite method are very aware people creative folk can surely think outside the box that does not mean we all have to agree on anything we sure dont !!!! good heavens, just the thought no, no control grid here just trying to work on things that pump good energy out big time in silence usually no we are just humans bound together by that uphill struggle to make the world a better place that s all there is to it and it s not too bad you meet some interesting folk once you are on that path I promise you

Aghascrebah Ogham Stone, Ireland

I feel its supernatural pull working its way up from the earth and out to the universe.
Laid by pre-historic man and un-earthed by modern farmer searching for rich soil.
Silver almost as the November sky.
Aiming towards the heavens
like a beacon over the boundaries.
Waiting perhaps in this empty field
for a gathering of a kind to recall the deep rooted origins of its
words forever notched in stone.
Into this November air
a supernatural force

Black 47

Often in times of deep meditation, walking through the Tyrone hills, I'll stand at a fence and ease my eyes out over the Sperrin mountain range.
The fields so lush and full of fertility,
the hum of agricultural goings-on.
The views take me by surprise.
I think of the "starvation" that swallowed
my ancestors—an image that stings the air still.
Spirits roam these hills covered in mass graves,
or deep in lanes were they fell, starved of food;
food that was packed in ships

bound for England,
to feed the chosen few,
whilst the poor, here, ordered to eat only potatoes,
died of structured starvation.
I can't imagine what it's like to go hungry,
to be tortured by the power of it,
to watch your child fade and die,
to see a race almost wiped out; a race who tilled that same fertile land.
Who is culpable? What of the mass exodus?
Was there trickery involved?
Greedy landowners offering ships bound for new lands where land, food and pay was promised.
Thousands died on the rough seas.
Others settled, always loving their spiritual home.
Who will acknowledge this crime against the Irish nation, a nation whose scars
are plain to see even to the present day?
Healing will begin only when we look into the past, where shadows linger and questions
hang in the air. Dark Rosaleen still awaits an apology.

was not feeling so great so used the collodial silver and some extra natural herb stuff like zeolite but mainly chlorella to get me back on my legs chlorella or spirulina is seaweed but in nice convenient easy to swallow pills because to swallow real seaweed ah...pffff it s ok now

I also used a few salt baths, just half a kilo of himalaya salt so I am feeling reasonably ok now I dont have a zapper heard some interesting things about it it is banned by the FDA so it probably works the zapper comes from the same school as the polarizer so I think it s good well, it has come to me that all you "dissidents" over in Ireland, by now, have had the helicopter job well done !!!

point is dont be intimidated by those jokers ok at least I warned you nobody warned me in those days I had no idea what was going on so for me it was much more startling than it was for you keep that in mind

it means you have kicked them where it really hurts, yep there where the jeweleries are ... again, I do promote awareness movements, they are just as well needed, point taken.
As far as I can see both have to go hand in hand, the energy work and the awareness movement. because on our own, just by the energywork alone, we cant fix it all we need to wake some up , some of the sleepers to do something positive even if they prefer to watch eastenders or dynasty or whatever only by some form of cooperation bigger results can be accomplished

That's a scarily low helicopter, none of them have come anywhere near us like that. Glad to report there's a Selenite Workshop scheduled for North Co. Dublin in two weeks and probably another one in Co. Clare the week after that. Looking forward to lots of instruction and fun on both occasions

well, some helicopters dont need to carry registration numbers can leave the left cockpit door open, during flight and go below legal minimum flight level... amazing isnt it dont worry so much J it s just the crap they do it is not important

oh I take them serious but it does not frighten me that s the difference they mean business well, guess what so do I this thing has been coming here for the last three days more or less they love to tease drive us back to Eastenders I guess well wont work so bought another 4 kilo fast plaster as the season is cold now so it s a better option I asked for protection and it seems to work in the past it has come much closer than this you get used to it if you dont crack up that is look we have the barium blues for ten years plus so we are not gonna shiver under the kitchen sink due to a noisy bird ok just give m the bird out of sight of course 2 dollar of plaster some sand and that s about it well well genius enough

X files in your back garden well you cant make this up can ya LOL
dont let the bad vibes grab you hehehehe nice to hear about the workshop at least some folk got something going excellent work Jenny we have been signing petitions up to our eye balls not to much use still we must continue that path we should not neglect it it is important work even if it does not show immediate results so dont let that hold you back we dont have many real friends out there nowadays all bought and paid for to go along with the agenda the world agenda there are only some grassroots patches left here and there

not too many and not all of them kosher too I wont touch on the Dane Wigginton Michael Murphy Max Bliss thing here because all that do have a cognitive function left can figure out for themselves what happened there it just shows had bad it really is and how organisations that rise , suddenly out of nowhere , show colors let s put it that way. Total radiosilence on that subject, ear deafening silence.
Dane s pushing the global warming hoax, agenda 21, the whole kit and kaboodle, as simple as that and anyone speaking out about it is going down total taboo on that topic that s why I love to touch upon it thank god I am not in those " movements" or in any movement just doing what s right is good enough

Climate Change Sense

July 17, 2015, 7:43 AM | Reply

Dane Wigington is pushing global warming.

There are many, many reputable scientists that challenge the IPCC and it's claims -see Climate Change Sense – but Dane does not appear willing to (at least publicly) acknowledge any of this. His refusal appears to be consistent with concerns notes by Hsaive, above.

in short
he is part of the scam voila

I thought you'd enjoy the following post from one of us Irish anti-geo-eng activists just now:
Pol Mag Aodha You all need to rise above this shit, live your life and be happy, spread love and joy where ever you go, so what if they kill us all, probably be the best thing to happen to us, homeward bound, and no im not depressed or anything, im a happy fucker, infectiously happy, and will stay that way till the end, this is a horrible hate filled world, full of evil, to much hurt and pain, dont let it turn you, i am not for turning, last thing standing will be my middle finger.....not two fucks do I give lol we the people cannot stop them anyway, half the world is asleep, we do not exist here we only exist in our higher selves...We are only avatars....sickness is in the mind....The body cannot live without the mind and the mind will live on after the body....so cheer up and enjoy the ride.....its all downhill anyway.

yes there is some profound truth in that too another way of looking at things to release us from this " dualistic" mind set that is true

it s not black and white and there are many more chapters to the book to be honest I somehow needed this sort of feedback shall we say to reorganise, reorientate myself too you see

as I do not like to do all the talking etc, you know what I mean because right now you and me are the sort of mother and father figure so to speak in this thing we got going here

you know...whereas it comes to my objectives , it s just to give folk a chance you see, to get going with a harmonious method that gets a lot done that s all there is in it for me regarding goals well it s for sure a fresh breath of air and sometimes that s desperately needed in the phase we go through now

as in a way we make ourselves dependant on the public their feedback or better spoken lack of feedback etc etc some things take time to change obviously when I started my first energywork pieces a few years ago, at that time nobody was doing anything on the old forum

the thing had almost completely died down, even than, at that early stage.

We still never hear about those things anywhere it just wont happen

it s not allowed , has to be kept out of the reach of the public and there for it is not pushed by the system and by the system I mean also the "orgonite communities" , they do nothing besides beating on the authorised drum usually attached to a money drum too that s all they do standing still and cashing in on this whole thing as simple as that most people are looking what other people do you see

there will always be a few per cent that does not do that three per cent who are capable of thinking for themselves and figure out things like Josh did and Timo and many other more heroes the few we have if it wasnt for us most out there would still see this natural method as a scam as that s how it s marketed to them so at least we covered that part of it making folk aware it does work and works very well too there s a lot to take in if you see the agendas most folk are unaware of we often feel like the crazy one standing on that soap box in the park you know being the village fools so to speak to be honest, I was like that before , before I rebuild the site etc, in that sort of state like you described the Mc Aodha state

yes
and I felt quite good about it but you know how it is when you go public like this one does change a bit , even subconsciously , to some extent, to make it all sound a bit more political correct as to not scare away the few newcomers that might roll into this work, this energy healing stuff you know what I mean by sheer logic we are not gonna tackle this thing, so there for it s a good opportunity to go back to being infectiously happy fuckers yep before we all crack up no we are not for turning otherwise we would not even be here , this whole thing would not exist they suck us right into their evil slipstream of the things they commit but you know how it is , esp with the things you lot do there this awareness thing etc how many folk prefer not to know we owe it to ourselves to make at least a good party out of it all hehehe time to bring back the one finger salute to our owners as we are never to be consulted about what s really going on no say in anything just flogging us like slaves we sure do not consent decided to uplift my spirit so made a new piece this time new recipe using fossilised seaweed or as it s called in English calcified seaweed anyhow, made more or less the polarizer mix , sort of and used that in the tool of light resonates charming, very different, never used it before done it once before summers ago and immediately recognise the thrill of the thing that special hmmmmmmmm you know, once you play with these energyblaster for a while and are a bit sensitive you pick it up asap like a sound you heard once but cant remember than hear it again and go ah that effect very nice tone this one like a sea breeze powerful with the typical nonchalant plasterite has like a quiet ocean did use some crystals in these ones made two lucky me bought new small bags as the remaining I had, ordinary Plaster of Paris wont do it anymore wont harden been open too long and cant be used we all know this is the big stick they are using and going to be using even more on us this sustainability CO2 scam crap agenda

I'm happy to post some pictures from a new 'pouurer' Patricia O'C from Monaghan, Ireland. She tells me she has started gifting already. As another addict commented in a post yesterday: Elenora N says: 'I am amazed how plasterite is spreading like a virus!' Let's hope the virus becomes an epidemic all over the world.

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

What is plasterite ?

Plasterite is a mixture of Water, plaster of Paris, (beach)sand and salt.

(Organite from Plaster/Gypsum/Selenite)

It has been rediscovered recently as the technique of making "energy cast stone" had been known to some ancient peoples in the past. In Egypt for example they used a similar mixture, but it was a much more complicated mixture with Natron and Limestone going through different production stages. What we have today , after many years of trials, the plasterite as we know it, is a much more simpler and cheaper but equally effective method of creating life fore energy. It works very well because the whole structure is basically one giant crystal/crystalline object. An improved version , much easier to produce and much higher in energy output using only natural materials that s the main reason why it works so well, so harmonizing in contrast to metal resin which is artificial and cannot provide those qualities/properties. Besides the artificialness and lower energy output of the metal resin method as it is still being pushed as the only solution it also is a very unhealthy method of working with these organite products. The fumes of the resin etc. are not healthy to say the least and it has been know that working with the resin intensively will cause troubles down the road on health. From a more holistic standpoint one could argue does that mixture of metal and plastic really belong in nature?

Secondly, the price, if you see the low price of plasterite in compare to the metal resin , chembuster, etc. with equal , actually better performance, one can almost understand the fear of the "organize business" when it comes to plasterite. Basically, there is not a real problem in that sense, people should just change over to making plasterite but we all know the power of money when it comes to changing opinions and being honest, money and truth usually do not like each other very much. The power of money controls a lot and so plasterite is held back by it as a free solution.

Also, as plasterite is viewed upon as a "threat" to the business interest a lot of propaganda and disinformation/misinformation is published to make folk doubtful about the plasterite so they won't look into it. In the first place as most information you find is propaganda claiming plasterite does not work, also the famous scam with the Kirlian photos come to mind here. Trying to desperately convince people it supposedly does not work as it has not metals in it / carbon chains, etc., etc.

That is the same line of logic claiming a banana is not a fruit because it does not look like an apple and is not green but yellow. I know, but that s the "logic" behind it unfortunately most folk fall for it.

Nevertheless plasterite has survived despite ongoing information warfare mainly by personal feedback from one person to another, showing results, etc. for the few who dared to play with it. Plasterite in a sense is viewed from the method of operation and functionality a much more advanced development compared to the chembuster. It therefor replaces the chembuster completely.

Technically, if you look at the plasterite with a microscope one can clearly see the crystalline structure of it one can see natural crystals that manifest and transmit energy much better. Everybody who has a microscope can easily check that, secondly, metals within plasterite have never been used and should not be used. It is often said it has but that is done deliberately to make people unsure again.

Gypsum and metals do not go together in the same mix. Metals or aluminum do interfere with the energy output in a negative way and should not be used inside the mix. Outside the mix that is a different story as some use tensor rings, copper wiring for broadcasters etc.

As in such a way it does not interfere but picks up and transfer the energy. By using plasterite the energies of nature are replicated in a perfect way

What can only be achieved by using natural materials? Because plasterite is a replication of the energies of nature it harmonizes, balances the energies around it and thereby negative energies are put back into harmony. Plasterite is effective against things that are artificial in our environment, for example, chemtrails, as they are neutralized, respectively; the information upon which it is based is neutralized, put into harmony. Information creates matter out of energy, the plasterite dissolves this information and thus the matter created becomes neutral again, non visible with the eyes. This procedure has been observed in nature and has contributed to the development of the plasterite method, a replication of Mother Nature s principles.

What Reich did was actually only combining energies that are available in the surroundings, the environment, that is why he advice using those techniques in his days only in natural areas where there is enough natural good energy (orgone energy) so basically his method consisted of large metal pipes with a connection to water through which or by which actually the water attracted / focused the energies and that energy was transferred/directed.

This also explains why it is possible to extent/increase the power considerably of a broadcaster if you connect it to the electric grid as you do connect it to the ground/earth. As plasterite is purely a natural construction it is there for not possible to be attacked by artificial energies.

History has shown us often enough, that one cannot solve an artificial problem with an artificial solution. As chemtrails and electro smog are artificial.

In short when we , again, keep trying to solve those artificially created problems by artificial means we enter into a cycle so the time is right to escape that cycle.

Due to its construction and the way natural materials are used, gemstones, crystals, who are in fact all to be found in good beach sand mixed together with some salt and plaster of Paris, it acts as a replication of the energies in nature always trying to harmonize, balance, bring things back into a natural order.

Technically speaking it works on the level of information, that s where the plasterite functions, by neutralizing the negative information in matter, it dissolves it and rendering chemtrails and there materials harmless, like an empty document or blank sheet.

The plasterite objects work in all directions as it is life force energy (orgone,chi,prana, ..) So it does not really matter where you place the object

It does not have to be outdoors or in the living room, etc., it works through all materials. Often a crystal is used inside the mix , vertically placed , so the Sky above gets an extra punch of energy, but it still works in all directions simultaneously. It restores natural weather in an area , in Spain it is used by farmers to restore rain to their fields, whereas in other regions it is used to balance the weather and avoid damage by hail storms, etc.

Due to the natural materials used and the way it is constructed reloading is not necessary , the object will recharge itself eternally, it is a never ending cycle naturally the same as nature does. Also the plasterite cannot overload with energy as in the end it achieves balance so life can thrive again as it is supposed to be.

As said often crystals are used, but that is not needed per se.

If you wish to do so just use cheap crystals, even crystal powders, bad shaped pieces, etc., does not matter , in the end it is just quartz and that s a big ingredient in (beach) sand so.

Although the plasterite objects can be protected against rain etc., I normally prefer not to do so, as I have found out if you place the objects in a protected location , shielded from immediate rain they hold on for a long time, many years. Without paint that is but if you want to you can just paint them.

How to make plasterite

Take an amount of water, say one liter, add two spoons of natural salt, add plaster of Paris and Add (beach)sand two or three cups. Experiment a bit to see what works out with your particular type of plaster, etc. Always use good intent what to accomplish. Pour it into some sort of mold and let it harden and your are done.

yeah I know...a bit rough on the edges but sometimes that s needed to make a point ...

as so many out there are indeed " sheeple 2.0" ...ah so political incorrect of me to say so but that s the truth anyway, truth can be annoying and not the thing we always like to hear but it s still the truth

.we are gorgeous....

...therefor we will always be poor ,poor geniuses

..... and dorky

...and please do report on the workshops , we dont see so much of that around us thank you for contributing ...always appreciated.....You are way too modest, dear J and Murielle too she is a very talented woman...a real artist.....

truly so...but maybe it is a good choice of her not to go into "sales" yet or at all maybe we all learned something here....sorry for the ferarri J...maybe for another day doesnt matter we are still in the lead here...totally broke but in the lead...and anyone with a reasonable functioning open mind can figure that out for themselves...just listen to your intuition and you know what s right ...as simple as that, really...no black magic here just listen to the heart and the heart speaks truth...for whatever that s worth...Although it s not a bad idea to sell cumstom designed pieces....still working on that, hatching that idea...the egg just wont come out yet....reluctance...have to buy some goodies, just in case we accidentally find a customer...miracles happen you know...they do...have had a lot doing this " enerywork" fancy term eh...but that s what it is....one of the main hurdles with these natural methods is one has to actually work with it to start grasping the bigger picture here...takes a lot of guts....most cant do that..you have to break the spell as they say..it is a method for healers so that s how it is ...it s not a toy or energy device per se , there is really more to it but again, one has to cross the line, take a step forward and just go for it...real truth is like jumping out of an airplane without parachute that s how you find real truth...not just the things you want to hear or just confirmation...the things that fit..it s being ready for the unknown, the magic..the mysterious , all of that..these experiences or wow moments usually occur during gifting especially gifting places of power and places of great sorrow....than one can be allowed to have a peek at the bigger picture and once thats shown to the individual , you know..you just know and you know most will never know..as they refuse to jump without parachute..they just wont do it..still fear is not needed here..it is not..it is great...it is wonderful..it is coming alive well all these things are not new..Steve talked about it years ago..what selenite can do....it used properly and honestly but it is not for everyone...this all is not for everyone..look around you and you know it s only for a few....also keep in mind creativity we are creative.....come up with stuff they dont know...that s why we are in the lead..and the control grid is check mate..because that way we become unpredictable ...they just can t get it and that s an important issue

Believe it or not but...some new members have applied.. normally I do receive an email about such happenings, how rare they might be... but...for some reason that did not happen, so I checked it out and there were four or five members waiting in a sort of queueu...so I let them all in... ah;;;
Mostly Irish sounding names but some others too have to check those settings again, whoops, sorry about that anyway
it's sorted out now Gives a bad impression

Like we are shy of members no we are not we are just..... not used to it, that's all so hello Maria, Aine, and the others there is no real censorship here as life force energy is a very broad subject as the old logo stated ...you are free to take it from here by shining your personal light on the matter.

Little side note here, although " orgonite forums" , the controlled ones, have a history of shafting individuals, those who dont follow the pied pipers with resin hoopla jadija..

you can speak what's on your mind, even if it s very politically incorrect.

You d better be political incorrect here that s what we are for ok, you wont be banned so let's look into black 47 a bit more closely and deeper to stay on course here just mesmerizing here I tend to do that sometimes look at things from different angles, especially those angles not pushed down our throat by the all pervasive control grid one must learn from history ,the ancient tricks as they use them over and over again succesfully because folk dont learn and live under the spell of perception management.

Irish "Potato Famine" Was Deliberate Genocide location of mass graves in Ireland

THE IRISH HOLOCAUST- (Irish: an Gorta Mór) or the Great Hunger was a period of mass starvation, disease and emigration in Ireland between 1845 and 1852

According to historian Chris Fogarty, the "Irish Potato Famine" which killed over five million people was not a famine but a deliberate British policy of starvation similar to the Holomodor in the Ukraine in 1932-33.

Note: why does that not really come as a surprise

"The truth is startling, 67 out of 130 regiments of Britain's Empire army were in Ireland in this period (100,000 at any one time). The troops were not on a humanitarian mission. Their job was to remove food by force."
by Richard Merriman

History is a big lie told by the victors. The illuminati have almost perfected rewriting history to suit their own agenda.

I grew up thinking that the Irish famine was a natural catastrophe caused by crop failure; the Irish were guilty of only cultivating only one crop-- potatoes.

While Chris Fogarty was researching the biography of his paternal grandfather at the National Archives, he uncovered a policy of genocide . The truth is startling: 67 out of 130 regiments of Britain's Empire army were in Ireland during this period (100,000 at any one time). The troops were not on a humanitarian mission. Their job was to remove food by force.

The nation starved as its food was confiscated, 40-70 shiploads a day were removed at gunpoint assisted by British constables, militia and troops. They seized tens of millions head of livestock, tens of millions of tons flour, grains and poultry. These vast quantities were more than enough to feed 18 million people. The first lie was that the famine was due to the failure of the potato crop. When the quantity of exported Irish foodstuffs could no longer be concealed, the second lie was that the rich Irish were starving the poor Irish. G.B. Shaw wrote in Man and Superman 1897: "The Famine? No, the Starvation. When a country is full of food and exporting it, there can be no Famine."

In The Great Hunger (1962,) British Historian Woodham Smith identified 13 of the food removal regiments. She became a pariah in British and Irish academia for the next 30 years. Academic historians maintain the lie that only one crop was cultivated, covering up the food removals and exportation to England. British and Irish academia won't approach the truth, and anyone bringing the genocide out in the open is smeared as a "republican" (implying a terrorist.)

Former Irish President Mary Robinson referred to the genocide as "Ireland's largest natural disaster." In 2005, British Prime Minister Tony Blair said, "Britain stood by while the Irish starved to death", but did not acknowledge role of the British Army in forced food confiscations.

The consequence of publishing the truth can be severe. Chris Fogarty has been raided several times and charged by the FBI. He was told unofficially that British intelligence were involved. The charges were later proven to be fabricated and dropped.

THE HUMAN TOLL AND MOTIVE

The 5.2 million death figure cited by Chris is higher than the official figures which only posit a 2M drop from 1841-51 due to natural famine and emigration. He believes the 1841 census underestimates the real population of over 12M. He calculates a total population reduction of about 6 million with about 1 million emigrating.

The genocide was a deliberate attempt to exterminate the Irish people and their cultural and national identity. Queen Victoria's economist, Nassau Senior, voiced his fear that existing policies "will not kill more than one million Irish in 1848 and that will scarcely be enough to do much good." The Times leader in 1848 wrote

"A Celt will soon be as rare on the banks of the Shannon as the red man on the banks of Manhattan."

During the "famine" years, Irish foodstuff received high prices on the agricultural and commodity markets of the world. The British Empire covered half the globe; why else would it keep half its armies in Ireland at great expense?

The Irish were an obstacle to Britain's world power. They were Celtic, Catholic with their own rich culture and traditions, namely strong: National identity, Family, Culture and Christian faith. The Irish have a strong Celtic consciousness giving the people the ability to think critically, morally and be self-sufficient and it's in our DNA cultural Marxism cannot extinguish it.

Ireland like many European nations is undergoing the genocide by cultural Marxism, mass immigration of third worlders, minority rights of LGBT, feminists to undermine marriage, gender leading to moral collapse.

Charity starts at home and our first duty is to be attentive to our own people's national tragedies before concentrating on another peoples. Shoahism has no place in Irish cultural life, as the nation and its people had no involvement in this event, so have no guilt or responsibility whatsoever.

Often in times of deep meditation,
walking through the Tyrone hills,
eyes
range.
fertility,
the hum of agricultural goings-on.
The views take me by surprise.
I think of the "starvation" that swallowed my ancestors—an image that stings the air still.
Spirits roam these hills covered in mass graves, or deep in lanes where they fell, starved of food; food that was packed in ships bound for England, to feed the chosen few, whilst the poor, here, ordered to eat only potatoes, died of structured starvation.
I can't imagine what it's like to go hungry,
to be tortured by the power of it,
Who is culpable? What of the mass exodus?
Greedy landowners offering ships bound for new lands where land, food and pay was promised.
Others settled, always loving their spiritual home.
Who will acknowledge this crime against the Irish nation, a nation whose scars are plain to see even to the present day?
Healing will begin only when we look into the past, where shadows linger and questions hang in the air.

Poem by Aine MacAodha

Only our rivers run free

When apples still grow in November When Blossoms still bloom from each tree When leaves are still green in December It's then that our land will be free I wander her hills and her valleys And still through my sorrow I see A land that has never known freedom And only her rivers run free

I drink to the death of her manhood Those men who'd rather have died Than to live in the cold chains of bondage To bring back their rights were denied Oh where are you now when we need you What burns where the flame used to be Are ye gone like the snows of last winter And will only our rivers run free?

How sweet is life but we're crying How mellow the wine but it's dry How fragrant the rose but it's dying How gentle the breeze but it sighs What good is in youth when it's aging What joy is in eyes that can't see When there's sorrow in sunshine and flowers And still only our rivers run free

Tomorrow lady J is starting one of the first " plasterite workshops" Totally out of the mainstream picture, out of funding, out of everything, but she still does it this is as grassroots as can be you wont find that too often nowadays as such efforts come out of the poeple themselves and can therefor not be controlled it is pure creativity so to speak although it is energywork related of course or , if you have to use that word for lack of a better term," orgonite" related ;)
Anyway
She gets it going and that s marvellous there is nothing to be taken for granted here as far as I am aware of it s never been done before at least not that we know of, maybe in ancient times ...
Hold on...hold on...are we not forgetting someone here ?
think think....
ah yes...you mean that guy from " down under" you mean him yes of course I do , who else we aint got stockpiles of that sort of folk, it s a rare breed so, it has been done before in a somewhat different setting As such methods of natural life force energy, I love that phrase as it skips over the orgonite word, that almost by pavlovian condition brings it into the metal resin area where I want to stay out of , desperately. :twisted: :twisted:

Also it has been done in Sweden, these plasterite classes at schools but still it is very unique, rare enough to be a bit excited about it more than a bit yes she has done that sort of things before

I had some interaction with Germany that turned out ok was bringing on the topic of " how in the world are we gonna sell this stuff" well , as I myself figured out during those brainstorm with Jennifer we simply cannot it is a gift from mother nature voila, there you have it it s likeselling sunshine or so ah the control grid would love to do that to you and they will, soon bring in their agendas of " sustainability" and all that hoopla agenda 21, bla bla bla....tax you through the roof because you simply exist and are a burden to the planet their planet
as they see it as their planet as you life in their system you didnt have a choice as you are born into that almost perfected system of control and have your minds stolen at birth some do escape one way or another not all of those who do wake up completely or to a independant extent most are still attached to the system one way or another that s the hardest part the " letting go " part I do admit it is very hard to do there for I do emphasize the great strength and wisdom it took for the German Enerycone concept to give it out of their hands now, for free. it takes a lot of guts to do that only a really good person who can let go of the system can do that and dont look back or have second thoughts and all that.

It is a genius concept, the working with nature to create this good energy but it comes with a price , you have to let go.
You cannot do this sort of work we do when you are attached to the matrix you simply cannot do that is impossible
you have to be able to draw a line in the sand and say enough enough of this enough from this point onwards I just wont have it from this point onwards I wont look back ever again there is nothing there for me one s destiny finding better solutions and try to " keep the mental breaks on" especially in these times of unbearable propaganda from all sides even from the " payriot movement" and all those circuses expensive circuses as the largest part , not all of it , but most of it is just a replacement for a more advanced sort of control grid, hope you have figured that one out by now...
If you are still at the Alex Jones level of things, well wish you all the best of luck.

One of our strenghts as strange as that may sound is there is no money involved..no, we cant make money of it also but that s good so it cannot be owned or abused etc..no major " truth movement" will ever touch the selenite , wont happen.
they just ignore it and taint us with the same cointel brush ..case closed..I am very careful about nformation here as there is enough shite on most forums,blogs, you name it especially the bigger ones..wont happen here..independance has its values too you see it is a rough ride...call it the " suicide way" but at least we are free..and can hang on for a while as we dont need money we dont need funding..we dont need big exposure ..honestly , we are beyond that level now we dont need to sell things to stay alive...and all that attachments to the system..although it can be a bit annoying to realise our " lesser brothers" are selling out or cashing in ...those who deliberately confuse information or ridicule it etc..I am not talking about folk who genuinely sell that metal plastic while responding to folk who just happened to be more inclined to a natural solution in a proper way..with truth, most wont do that even though they are very well aware of its power and potential

There are only a handful of that folk who do the metal plastic stuff AND give truth about natural methods. Those we appreciate.

Because we know also not a penny can ever be made with your creative work..so when Jenn makes another bovis blasting selenite tower , I forgot how much bovis (energy force) it had,something about a trillion bovis or whatever..anyway, strong enough to slice a whole legion of chemtrails and crap they throw at us relentlessly now.. can we see that piece again ?

Although it cannot be marketed as ordinary eh"merchandise" there is of course nothing wrong essentially if one want to get paid or compensated not with the aim of exploitation, but just to keep going, basics as although it may seem that way we have to pay too you know for our materials thank god it is not that much but still and thank god for Josh's talent of breaking formulas down into much more down to earth levels to work with so you have the same quality in strength but can save more than a few dimes on the side too like using the homeopathic method by putting crystals, gemstones , but mainly crystals into water and only use that water ah jee that guy was a fxxxxx genius genius and - of course - skeptical me was doubtful, there is nothing wrong with that essentially you SHOULD be doubtful about everything but have an open , uncontrolled and unguided , mind to reach your own conclusion on the matter individually without peer pressure and so forth so I did yes it worked in my humble opinion it works often, not always, often even better but generally speaking, yes, just do that and that s good enough to "charge" the whole thing positively Despite I buy crystals cheap at 20 Euro per kilo at http://www.mineraliengrosshandel.com/Be ... 03477.html but that company is aimed at the mainland so maybe not suited for the UK and Ireland

Once you start making more or larger Tools of Light you run into financial issues especially if you also use massive amounts of gemstones and rose quartz

It is not a bad idea to use those materials , you can later on, if you like, go more natural even more, even more bare essentials, see what works for you maybe best to start with the things above so it is more work and there for more opportunity to work on this intention thing should not be underestimated or glossed over should be used

Anyway, main ground rule, stay as close to nature as possible and when the blue sky appears and natural clouds and all the other goodies , all for free and maybe a few helicopters swinging through your neighborhood , once in a while ah ...that s all justcoincidence

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

Thanks for posting poetry and pics up, I have visited many sites ancient and new around Ireland stepping outside the religious box a long time ago and finding inner peace among the ruins of stone circles. I joined a facebook group and plasterite spoke more to me, cleaner and natural so my journey begins, gathering clean natural ingredients to create pieces. So glad to have this forum, I read a lot so I will enjoy the posts.

Slaint!

anamcara

and out to the universe.
searching for rich soil.
like a beacon over the boundaries.
words forever notched in stone.

Often in times of deep meditation,
walking through the Tyrone hills,
eyes
range.
fertility,

The views take me by surprise.
stings the air still.
mass graves,
or deep in lanes where they fell,
starved of food;
food that was packed in ships
to feed the chosen few,
eat only potatoes,
died of structured starvation.
hungry,
to be tortured by the power of it,
race who tilled that same fertile land.
mass exodus?
Was there trickery involved?
promised.
spiritual home.
whose scars
day?
into the past, where shadows linger
and questions

Thanks Aine, hold on...

Have to find my pronunciation guide here....

Sláinte

Look up sláinte in Wiktionary, the free dictionary.

For other uses, see Sláinte (disambiguation).

Sláinte or slàinte (SLAHN-chə) is a word literally translating as "health"[1] in several Gaelic languages and is commonly used as a drinking toast in Ireland and Scotland.

Sláinte is the basic form in Irish Gaelic. Variations of this toast include sláinte mhaith "good health" in Irish (mhaith being the lenited form of maith "good").

The basic Scottish Gaelic equivalent is slàinte (mhath) (same meaning) to which the normal response is do dheagh shlàinte "your good health".[4] There are other variations such as:

air do shlàinte "on your health!" with the response slàinte agad-sa "health at yourself!"[5]

slàinte mhòr "great health" which is also used as a Jacobite toast with the alternative meaning of "health to Marion", Marion (Gaelic Mòr) being a Jacobite code name for Prince Charles Edward Stuart.[6]

The Manx Gaelic form is slaynt (vie)[7] or shoh slaynt.[8] Alternatively, corp slaynt "healthy body" is also used in Manx.[3]

The toast is mispronounced by non-native speakers in various ways, most commonly[citation needed] with excessive voicing as /'zla:nd3/ (see the Pronunciation box on this page for a guide to the correct pronunciation).

Etymology

The word is an abstract noun derived from the Old Irish adjective slán "whole, healthy" plus the Old Irish suffix tu, resulting in slántu "health" and eventually Middle Irish sláinte.[9][10] The root slán is derived from the Indo-European root *slā- "advantageous" and linked to words like German selig "blessed" and the Latin salus "health".[11]

In some modern Romance languages, words descended from the Latin word salus (such as salute in Italian, salut in Catalan and Romanian, salud in Spanish) are similarly used as a toast. (However, santat in Occitan (Cathar) and santé in French are rather from Latin sanitas "health.")

Your words come from the heart , it is easy to see for those who care to see.

They are real and very touching but also very realistic, stimulating, uplifting and bringing us back in touch with our roots, our history, as we dont have much left of that anymore.

It is a very important topic as all is connected somehow, there is a much bigger picture to this all, once one starts to grow into this "energywork" for lack of a better word.

Especially with selenite, this plasterite, it is very powerful in that sense...in bringing in real awareness..very powerful..Once someone is in this "line of work" for some time it will become very easy, like a hunch, or intuition, to spot real folk out there doing the right thing, regardless in what profession or capacity. So when I spot one of those, the real ones, as they are very rare, so once I bump into one of those I grab them in my clutches and do promote their honest important work.

No we dont have to do this , we dont have to do anything, but we choose to do this like we all choose to be on this path, so the least we can do is support eachother respect eachother for our individual efforts. That does not mean we have to agree with all folk etc on all topics whatsoever, there is room for differences. That is the way it should be.

Instead of beating eachother over the head with differences and become completely divided.

On the other hand, we must always focus on real values and truth, thus it can happen arguments do occur , that is the way it should be.

As long as we dont bend over, sell out, give up, go with the flow, sing from the authorised songsheet, or become eternally depressed etc...we do a great job

As long as we use what we have left, our strongest asset, our spirit, our knowledge we are still in the game and they cant have it. Our light.

They cant stand it.Our creativity , our ridicule about the system, call it satire if you like, whatever, you know, as long as we piss them off we do a good job, that s how I see it , while simultaneously working on our own destiny , out of their reach.

Aine, we will never become rich doing this

..wont happen, maybe that s the way it is supposed to be.

Maybe that s the good way...I am not saying we must be poor LOL...It's just if anyone works on the path of light you wont get rich , that's all I am saying.

The masses don't go for that only those who see will appreciate it , see its value....But mainly if anyone goes on the path of light one will not be authorised by the system, the control grid. Just won t happen. Ever.

That s one of the main reasons why I do a littlebit of promotion here for real folk.

As there is no funding for real folk anyway, for those outside the grid.

They are on their own.So the least we can do is give some publicity and who knows maybe some creations will be sold to at leas keep real folk ticking along a bit longer.

Not just financially but mainly spiritually.

And yes, nice of you to bring that aspect up, it is a natural solution..in harmony as I like to call it..It amazes me till this day why so few folk catch on even though at this stage there is so much validation available..so we see mainly all sorts of creative folk work with it the more aware ones, let s put it that way

We're floating on flat earth n fictional moonlight high,

The sheeple far below,

Are sleeping as we sigh.
 I'm holding anger back, I will explode like a midnight blue, I'm finding you too shy,
 So wake the fuck will you.
 All across the world,
 The villagers go by in a dream,
 The rivers and the hills,
 The forests roar and scream.
 Children gaze open mouthed, Taken by Apples lies,
 Nobody down below,
 Believes their mind controlled eyes.
 We're choking on the air,
 We're sucking in a chemical sky, We're drifting over time, Our brain cells floating by.
 We're choking on the air,
 Were watching our lives pass by,
 The alien starships up above,
 Will never let us die.

A big shout out to god and his allies who are here now to wipe these mother earth fuckers off our planet God ya absolute legend. Respect.

A day of Classic posting thank you Sunflower, what a cross-section, from the sublime to the ridiculous

And no punches pulled about fund-raising, I believe Juliet may have reached the amount needed already for the hair test but extra needed for further tests which can be carried out too. But still true, it was hard to believe that 50 euros was not raised in the wink of an eye.

Love Aine's photos, so atmospheric. Waiting and hoping for some posts from some new members soon.

You know , J, sometimes it is necessary to just sit back before I respond LOL and if you think that thingy was a rant ha, you dont know what a real rant is it would be a marvellous one, covering at least four pages at least...with words and expressions you d never heard you d even doubt if they were physically achievable...LOL.....but they are , trust me they are doing some massive Zen operations here, meaning, have a smoke and drink a cold one LOL to calm down LOL...oh boy...you should have seen that one, it was massive, those of Pol MacAodha are childsplay compared to my beauty, but I deleted it , would be too rough , truthful nevertheless but you know how well folk handle truth nowadays , right , so why bother in the first place because it would focus only on the dark side and we know the dark side very well so why keep beating about it we know what s going on and facts speak to itself it s just sad the way things really go , that s how it is have to watch my language here or I might say things like 2500 people cant raise fifty bucks is a fucking shame that sort of thing , to show my anger and ahhopeless

the only thing that matters is what we do not what we say bring it into life into existence that's what matters could be anything, again, does not have to be energy related, could be anything that shines a light, could be so much to hold on to our humanity what's left of it Today I found tony he is one of the old crew he is doing healing work he is a real sjaman the real McCoy the real deal , when you see him it knocks you over what light unbelievable so proud , I dont know if I can "lure him in" but ah does not matter the point is he is a special person, one Josh' closer buddies in the days what energy in that man like a sun just glad I saw him, that s all I wont give his details as I want his permisson first on such matters I care for privacy and respect you see, yes I am a little odd... forgot his avatar name, but it s somewhere in the documentation ah yes Spirit Walker what a guy we will see maybe nothing comes of it , does not matter actually he has done his share so somehow I dont want to "bother him" too much just notified him and that s it.

Thanks Monsoon!!!

My daughter has suffered from depression and some other serious emotional issues, so her embracing these creations the way that she has is both very heart warming and encouraging. I can feel their energy without even trying now, and just as you mention, it seems to get stronger as the piece dries out, at least to my senses. These seem to be broadcasting on a very high frequency/vibration.... To be honest, the more of them I can get her to paint and keep in her room, the better!!!! LOL

Her emotional well being really seems to have improved since I started making these, there is a joy about having them around that is uncanny. She was a little embarrassed I took the pics and put them up, after she had seen what Catherine made, but I kept telling her that there is no wrong, there is no bad, when you open your heart to allowing the beauty to flow outwards into a design. I love the sound of your latest, please see if you can post a pic when you get a chance, I would love to "feel" it too!!!

Thank you so much Steve!!! It really helps to get a unbiased reading on what we are making. Your readings helped me to confirm my inner tickle. What I have learned is I just can't always change things to make the inner Tony happy with his wild delight in "improving" upon things... So putting sand in does make it stronger, but there is a limit to how much sand should be added into the mix ratio it feels like. The blessing in all of this is seeing those Bovis readings, and accepting that my paradigm has shifted again, in allowing even more unknown ways to work with energy to manifest in something so wonderfully easy and fun to make. Tony yes there is a massive JOY too in this whole thing this making the world a better place one might overlook that perhaps due to my endless rants LOL hehehehe...there is big joy too!!!!

..let s not forget that before the sheeple claim we are the " grumpy bunch" it s all worth it...and keeps us going

Business Cards...

yep... you heard that right we are going "professional" now LOL what a laugh eh ...but it's true

Business Cards....

As Jenny is thinking about , you know, making things, for the first time in human history, a bit more modern when it comes to bringing out the selenite Gospel. So she is thinking about leaving designer pieces at shops and the like , for trial. So the clients, yes you heard that right, the clients can decide out of free will whether they are pleased with the effect or not.

So in that sense a business card might help out to make it all work out more efficiently.

Selenite Inc. LOL

ah well...Good plan J !!

Will look into it myself too, maybe I can help out, so you dont have the feeling you are on this planet alone, that s my thingy you see, feeling that way but maybe not anymore maybe sometimes times and things do change for real

Did a little test on the design thing and it worked out very well there is just...one slight problem...do you know what the problem is J ?

Masonic Notes ?

masonic notes with the all seeing-eye on it, those ones the mother of all Cons, the dollar as we dont have them so ...but we will get there we will work something out

But somehow I am afraid we cant skip that money part because even if you d make them yourself you d still need special paper, printer, jadija...

so maybe in this case easier to have them made professionally just a thought

you know the solution to this drama ? what I would do , I would make , handcrafted, personal card, tailored so to speak, easy to make, with a picture on it, and laminate the whole thing glue plastic on it etc that s how I would do it

Yes that s how I would do it, handwritten, picture on it, and plastify it a unique card much more creative instead of giving out computer design cards People are strange, if you d give an painted energy piece for free they wont have it.
If you charge fifty buck they ll be glad to buy otherwise, without money , somehow people cannot grasp the idea this thing has value that s how bad it really is if you truly think about it rationally.
Isnt it silly ? It is , but it s also real life.
Besides, you dont need hundreds of them, just a dozen to start with maybe ?
Just glad to hear you are on it J, that s all.
At least you are moving forward.
We all move forward.
